

Providing Environmental Management Solutions

We provide environmental management solutions that help businesses and individuals succeed in today's ever-changing world. Our solutions are designed to make business easier, more efficient, and more productive.

Who We Are

Automated Environmental was established to offer tailored, cost-effective solutions for environmental management.

Our goal is to help clients navigate Australian environmental protection laws efficiently and effectively. We believe that everyone, from individuals to businesses, has a part in preserving our environment.

Why Choose Us

Deep Industry Experience

Highly qualified consultants with extensive industry experience. We are committed to providing innovative solutions that will help create a better tomorrow for everyone.

Consulting Expertise You Can Trust

Fully insured with comprehensive Professional Indemnity, Public Liability and Workers Compensation insurance in place.

Full membership to both the Australasian Land and Groundwater Association (ALGA) and The Environment Institute of Australia and New Zealand (EIANZ).

Innovative, Cost Efficient Approach

We are committed to providing innovative solutions that will help create a better outcome, cost efficient outcome for our clients and the environment.

Our Services

Baseline Environmental Reports

- Site contamination status for property transactions and contractual liability
- Site contamination status for lease entry and exit contracts

Construction Environmental Management Plans

- Preparation of construction environmental management plans.
- Outlining mitigation measures.
- Erosion & Sediment control plans.

Waste Soil Classification

- Investigations to characterise waste soils and categorised for lawful off-site disposal.

Project Management

- Managing sub-contractor permitting, OHS and Inductions.
- Engage and supervise drilling and excavation contractors.
- Engage laboratories and interpret analytical data.

